Parkside Financial Bank and Trust Hires Capital Market Consultants, LLC for Mutual Fund and Separate Account Research

Milwaukee (PRWEB) April 15, 2008 – Capital Market Consultants, LLC (CMC) a Milwaukee-based investment consulting firm providing investment research and economic consulting to financial intermediaries has added Parkside Financial Bank and Trust of Clayton, Missouri to its growing list of clients.

According to Matt Wagner, President of Wealth Management for Parkside, “As a new commercial bank, trust company and wealth management firm, we want to make sure our clients’ investments are regularly and carefully reviewed by an independent firm that specializes in manager and mutual fund research for banks. We take our fiduciary responsibilities and the well being of our clients very seriously. For our business, we wanted to find a resource outside our firm that would complement what we do, so that we could focus our time on growing our business and serving our clients.”

“Parkside is a great client for us. They are easy to work with. We were delighted to discover that the needs of their new business could be met by some of the services we provide our existing bank clients. We look forward to watching them grow and growing with them,” said Barry Mendelson, CIMA, Managing Partner of CMC.
