Mintz Levin Financial Advisors, LLC Forms Strategic Alliance with Capital Market Consultants, LLC

Boston, MA -- Expanding its ability to provide clients with the most comprehensive services, Mintz Levin Financial Advisors, LLC (MLFA) announced that it has entered into a strategic alliance with Capital Market Consultants, LLC.

Capital Market Consultants, LLC (CMC), a Milwaukee-based independent investment consulting firm, will provide MLFA with on-going due diligence of MLFA's existing investment managers, conduct new investment manager searches and provide economic and investment commentary and recommendations. MLFA oversees more than $850 million of client assets.

"CMC's highly-regarded research capabilities allow us to focus more of our attention on the needs of our clients during these challenging financial times," said Robert J. Glovsky, President of Mintz Levin Financial Advisors. "MLFA's mission is to help our clients realize their life goals by providing comprehensive and customized financial planning. CMC's reputation for providing custom investment solutions furthers MLFA's ability to help our clients achieve those goals."

CMC is an institutional investment consulting group exclusively serving financial intermediaries. Its clients are institutions and wealth management firms that engage CMC to develop and maintain their high net worth investor best-of-breed investment platform. They have a highly talented, experienced and credentialed staff committed to providing innovative and thought-leading investment research.
